(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
GOLDSBOORO, N. C., Jan. 39.—Mr. W.
T. Cox, of this city, just received the sad news of the shocking death of his granddaughter, Miss Minnie Ross, which oc-curred a few days ago on the banks of the Neuse River, in Johnston county. Miss Rose, in company with her sister-n-law, went down to the river bank to carry dinner to her brother, who was having a raft constructed, and in some unknown way the large log on which they had taken seats, started rolling. Her sister jumped to the next log above, and this also started rolling. Miss Cox was caught by the skirt by the first log Find jerked under it. Then both logs passed over her, killing her instantly.

to re-establishing a leaf tobacco market

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 30.-The Raleigh Tobacco Company, organized with a view

here, is distributing large quantities of tobacco seed throughout this and neighboring counties, and many business mer are offering valuable prizes to farmer for the purpose of encouraging tobacce culture. Much confidence is manifested in the success of the movement. NEW COLPORATIONS.

Three new corporations have been chartered by the Secretary of State in various parts of the State. They are the M. J. Corbett Company, of Wilmington, capital 50,000, having for its object a general commission merchant business; the South-

Burlington, $50,000, and the Wesley Williams Company, of Elizabeth City, capital $25,000. Colonel W. H. Moore, president of the National Good Roads Association and director of the good roads train, spent yesterday in Raleigh, and expressed great satisfaction at the work being done here by the officials and the press in preparation for the great State Good Roads Convention, to be held here in connection coming of the train, February

BIG CROWD COMING.

Indications are that it will be one of the most largely attended gatherings of any kind ever attended in the State. Gov. ernor Aycock has issued upwards of 5,004 personal letters and communications to citizens in every county urging attendance and answers are pouring in from those who signify their intention to come. The Superintendent of Public Instruction issued warrants on the treasury yesterday for eighteen more rural public school libraries. Applications are coming in now very rapidly, and the 300 mark will soon be reached. THE SOLDIERS' HOME. Ceremonies in honor of the completion of extensive improvements at the North Carolina Soldiers' Home will take place February 4th. Governor Aycock and Gen-eral J. S. Carr, president of the Soloiers' Home Association, will make addresses. These will be followed by a reception and luncheon, complimentary to the old soldiers. The new building includes twenty bed rooms and two large halls.

Each room has been furnished by some chapter of the Daughters of the Confedchapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

MANY NEW COMPANIES.

The Wilkes Mining Company, of Wilkesboro, was chartered to-day with $125,000 capital; also the Holt Worth Supoly Company, of Greensboro, with $25,000 capital. The latter company will do a general milling and milling supoly business.

The Secretary of State stated to-day that during the past month fifty new companies have been chartered, and that during the first year of the operation of the present corporation law, which ends March 1st, not less than 2,000 new stock companies will have been chartered. This is an unprecedented record.

The North Carolina law is the New Jersey law with some medifications.

A goodly number of farmers, on account of a good season for getting their tobaccoready for shipment, can be seen going to the same. As a rule they have gotten fine prices, which is a good thing, as their corn crop was cut short, much of it by high water in the summer.

By advice of the family physician, Dr. Julian Abbitt, Judge D. A. Christian hat taken his wife to Chase City for a few months, where she can freely use the lithia water, by which she has hithert been materially benefited. While there he will be connected with the town paper, the Chase City Progress, but will be of hand as usual to hold his courts in Appomattos.
